The aim of this work may be thus stated: to show that Nature is not "a fortuitous con-currence of atoms," and to assign to man his rightful place in the scheme of the Universe; STAAR Grade 4 Reading - Texas Education Agency

(LAIR-inks, "voice box"). But an elephant's huge larynx produces very low sounds. In fact, some rumbles are too low for human ears to hear. A person standing nearby may feel the vibrations. But elephants can pick up these rumbles from miles away! They use special sensors in their feet to "hear" the distant vibrations through the ground.
